In Memory of Nancy Maleri . . .

The Children's Room has created a special book display in memory of Nancy Maleri, a loving wife, mother, friend and dedicated teacher. Family and friends of Nancy knew how strongly she felt about the role of literacy in a child's world and the importance of reading. When she taught kindergarten classes at Irving School, Nancy was the first teacher at the start of the school year to schedule class visits. It is with fond memories that we display these book titles that were chosen by her friends and family.
